September 8, 2020

New Orleans law firm Fishman Haygood LLP, together with Alysson Mills and Kristen Amond, announce the formation of Mills and Amond's new law firm, Mills & Amond LLP.

Mills & Amond will build on Mills's and Amond's growing profiles as confident and polished lawyers who take on big and meaningful cases.

Mills balances a sophisticated commercial litigation practice with an interest in constitutional and criminal law. As a partner at Fishman Haygood, she won precedent-setting cases for clients of all backgrounds, from large corporations to civil rights plaintiffs.

Amond is a versatile lawyer and dogged advocate. At Fishman Haygood, she represented businesses in complex litigation and developed a niche in investor fraud and bankruptcy litigation.

Mills & Amond will work with Fishman Haygood on projects of mutual interest. Fishman Haygood is an elite boutique law firm known nationally for its high-stakes litigation and first-class transactional practices.

Mills will continue to serve as the court-appointed receiver in Securities & Exchange Commission vs. Adams, et al., No. 3:18-cv-252 (S.D. Miss.), for which she is charged with recovering money for victims of Mississippi's largest Ponzi scheme. Fishman Haygood will continue to serve as her counsel in the receivership.
